Well Peg.
Remember the U.S. game - I don't think my mom can thank you enough for getting her today. Baby home again
Thank you
Oh well Stupid nonsensical brackness of youth. This year was been great and next year on my way up to Harvard I'll prop it of at Hamilton. Hope I see you there summer and we can get together before that hectic year of 63-64.

Lots Kis

Peg.
To a wonderful class pres. & a cute & wonderful girl.
Thanks for everything you've done this year to help the whole class & new girls. (I appreciate that)
Love,
Sam

Peg,
To a great little President and a real sweet kid. I'll always remember the girl who finally made one of his rainbows seniors feel she might be missed a little bit.
You know I wish you good luck next year and the best of everything with Toby. Its so darn sentimental today
I guess it's all girls stupid, but to be I mean it.
Always,
Lynn '63

Peg,
This has really been a wonderful year. And we will seriously have to get our sexy ass, seven, eight & low many members
there are to some singing Next year's prom is going the best, & I'm going to get you lots of money to work with.
Love ya,
Nancy

Peg, I'll never forget your yell & scream "Come on Shady Side" and "yea, Toby", & yould never forget mine "Madison may brother sue'um, sue'um
I'll see you at F.V.C.C. this summer. Stay the same and yould always be great.
Love & best luck
Betsy

Peggy,
It's been really great having you for a big sister, even if I do have another one already.
Hope you do as well with the prom as you've done as our president.

THE SENIOR CLASS

of

THE WINCHESTER-THURSTON SCHOOL

4721 Fifth Avenue

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

PRESENTS THE

1963 THISTLEDOWN

FOREWORD

We have chosen a lighter, gayer theme for The Thistledown this year to express the mood of joyful anticipation so prevalent in our school as we look forward to moving into the new building. It is quite easy for us to bear the crowded classrooms, study hall, and cafeteria when we know that the next year will bring such welcome relief.

For the seniors, however, the mood is slightly nostalgic as we realize that soon we must say good-bye to Winchester and the old building forever. It seems to every Senior Class that once they leave the school in which they have spent such a great part of their lives, things will somehow cease to function there. However, for the Senior Class of 1963 this is true. Once we are gone, Winchester girls will no longer burst from the doors of the old building at Friday dismissal or pour noisily into the study hall at lunchtime. That study hall, in which Winchester students have sat through a major depression and a world war, will never again see Santa Claus at Christmas or bright bouquets on May Day. Yet these memories will live on in the hearts of those for whom they have provided such happiness.

K.B.W.

DEDICATION

A teacher who has a sophisticated yet relaxed approach to life . . . who combines femininity with vitality . . . who has an instinctive good taste in clothes . . . who is frequently seen driving down Clyde Street in her convertible . . . a person who can thoroughly enjoy a joke, even when it is on herself . . . who allows freedom in class without sacrificing the respect of her students . . . who listens sympathetically and counsels wisely.

For these reasons and for that "special something" which is so much a part of her, we, the Seniors of 1963, dedicate our Thistledown to Mrs. Virginia Beebe, our understanding friend and advisor.

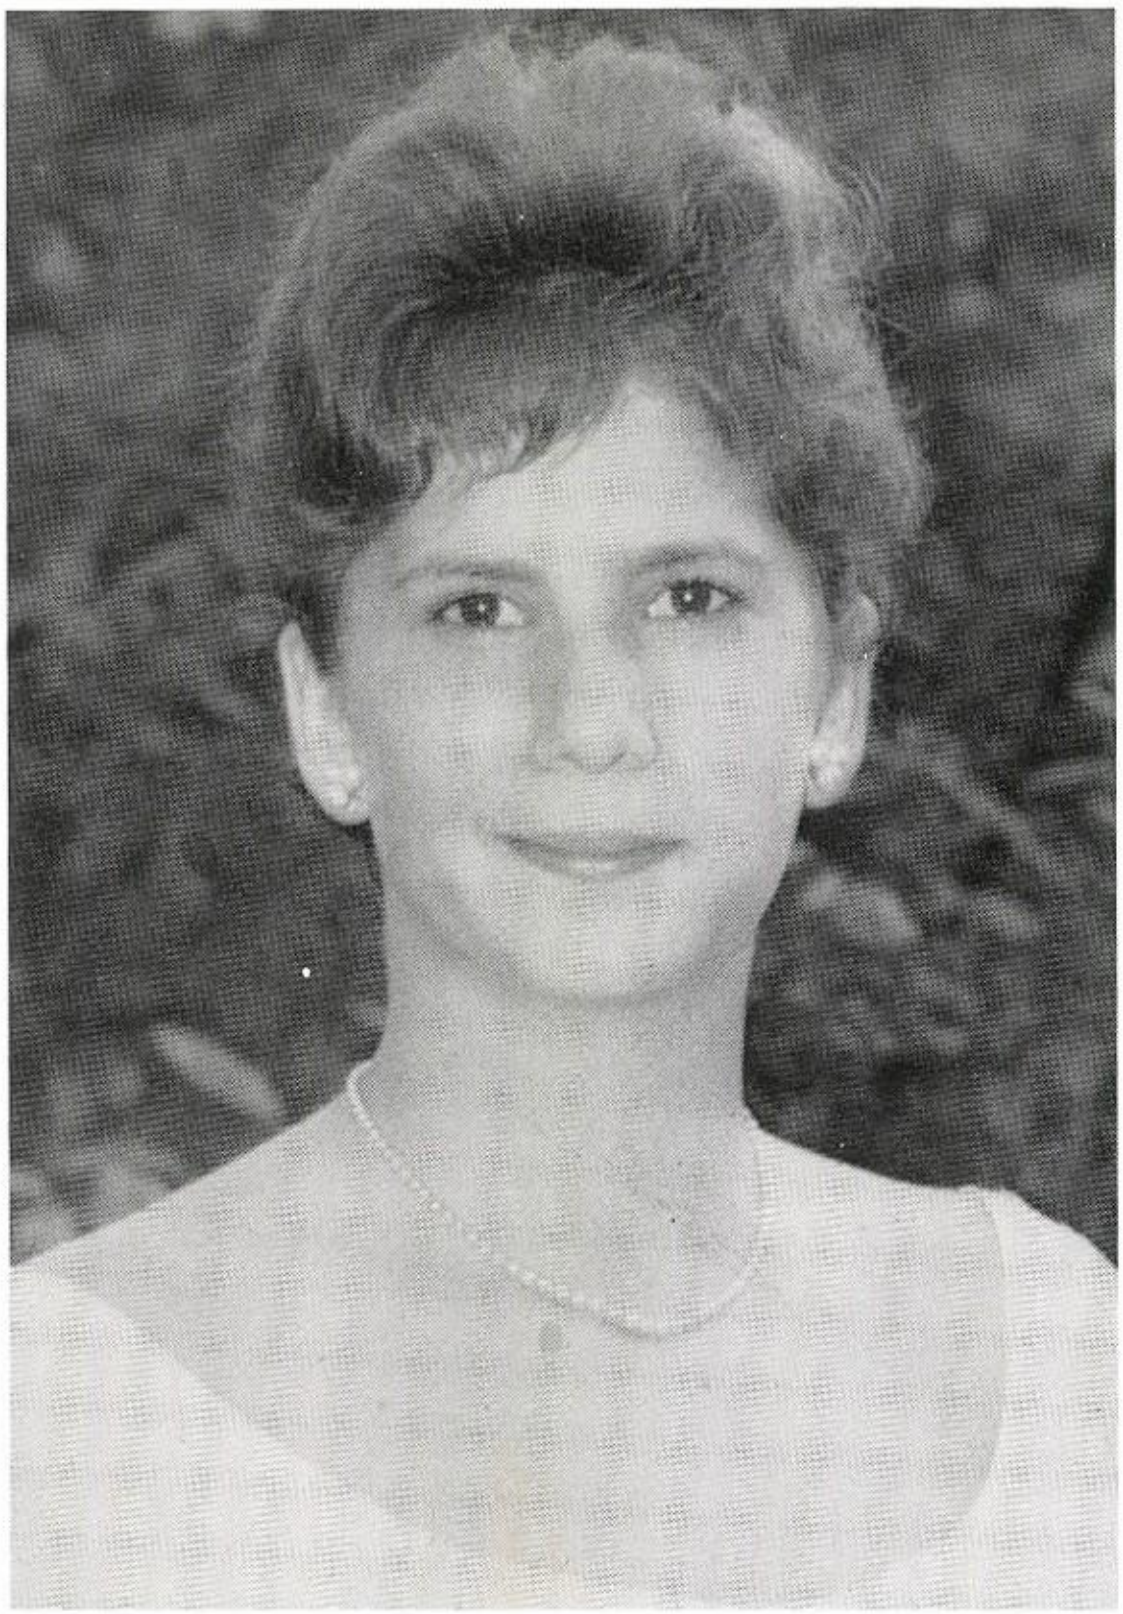
Peg
Maybe we'll make it to college graduation on time in about four years. Take care of Tolly and maybe you'll make it to Mrs. Astley someday. Never forget the S.S.A. dances & prom. Have a blast this summer.
Love ya
Mary



MARGARET GARMAN BOND

IN MEMORIAM

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow Die not, poor Death; nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go—
Rest of their bones and souls' delivery!
Thou'rt slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally
And death shall be no more: Death, thou shalt die.

Death, Be Not Proud

IN MEMORIAM

. . . Sunt hic etiam sua praemia laudi, sunt lacrimae rerum, et mentem mortalia tangunt.

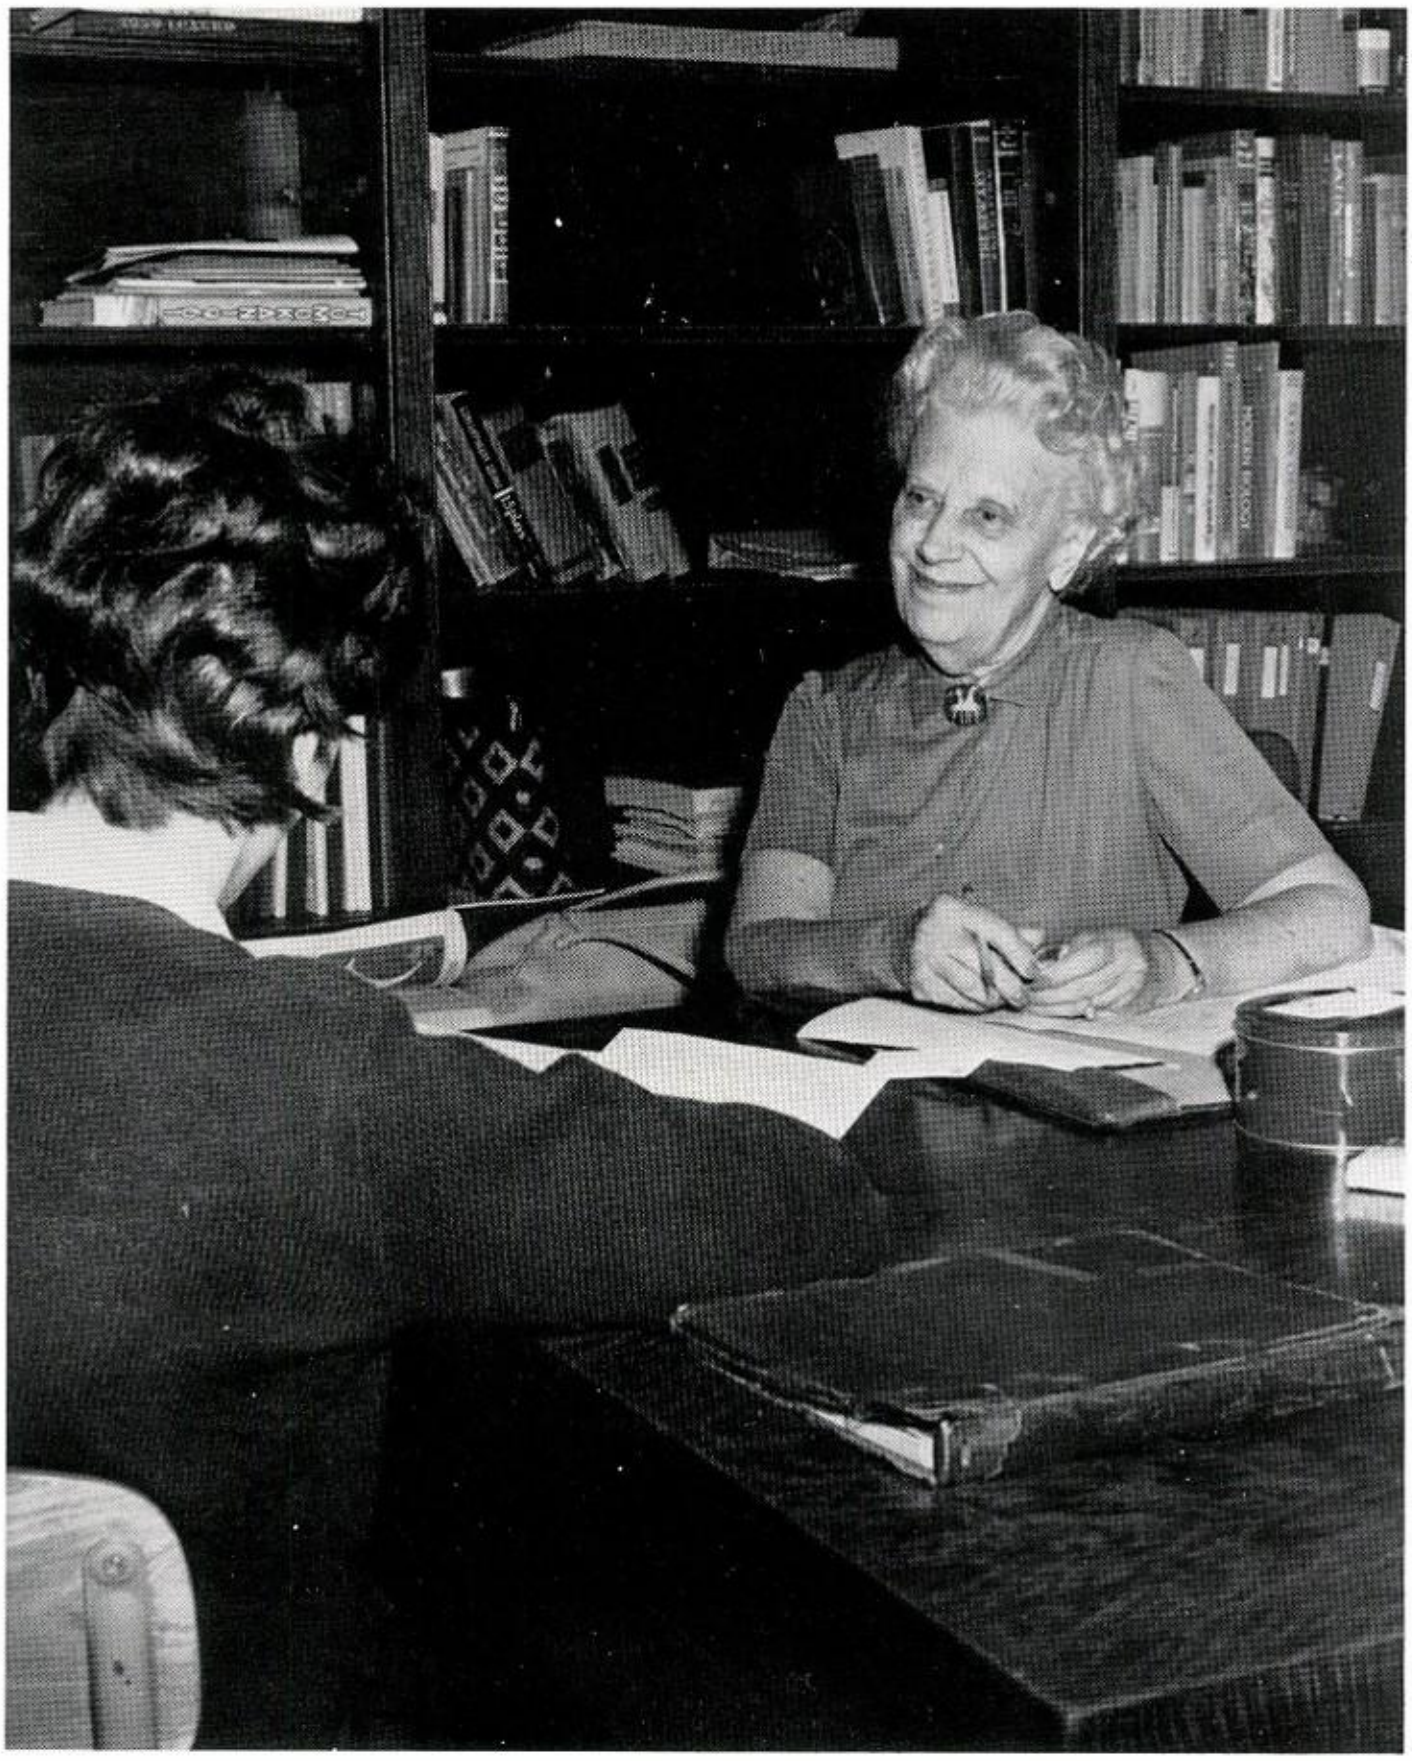
Vergil

Vivit tamen semperque vivet in memoria.

Cicero

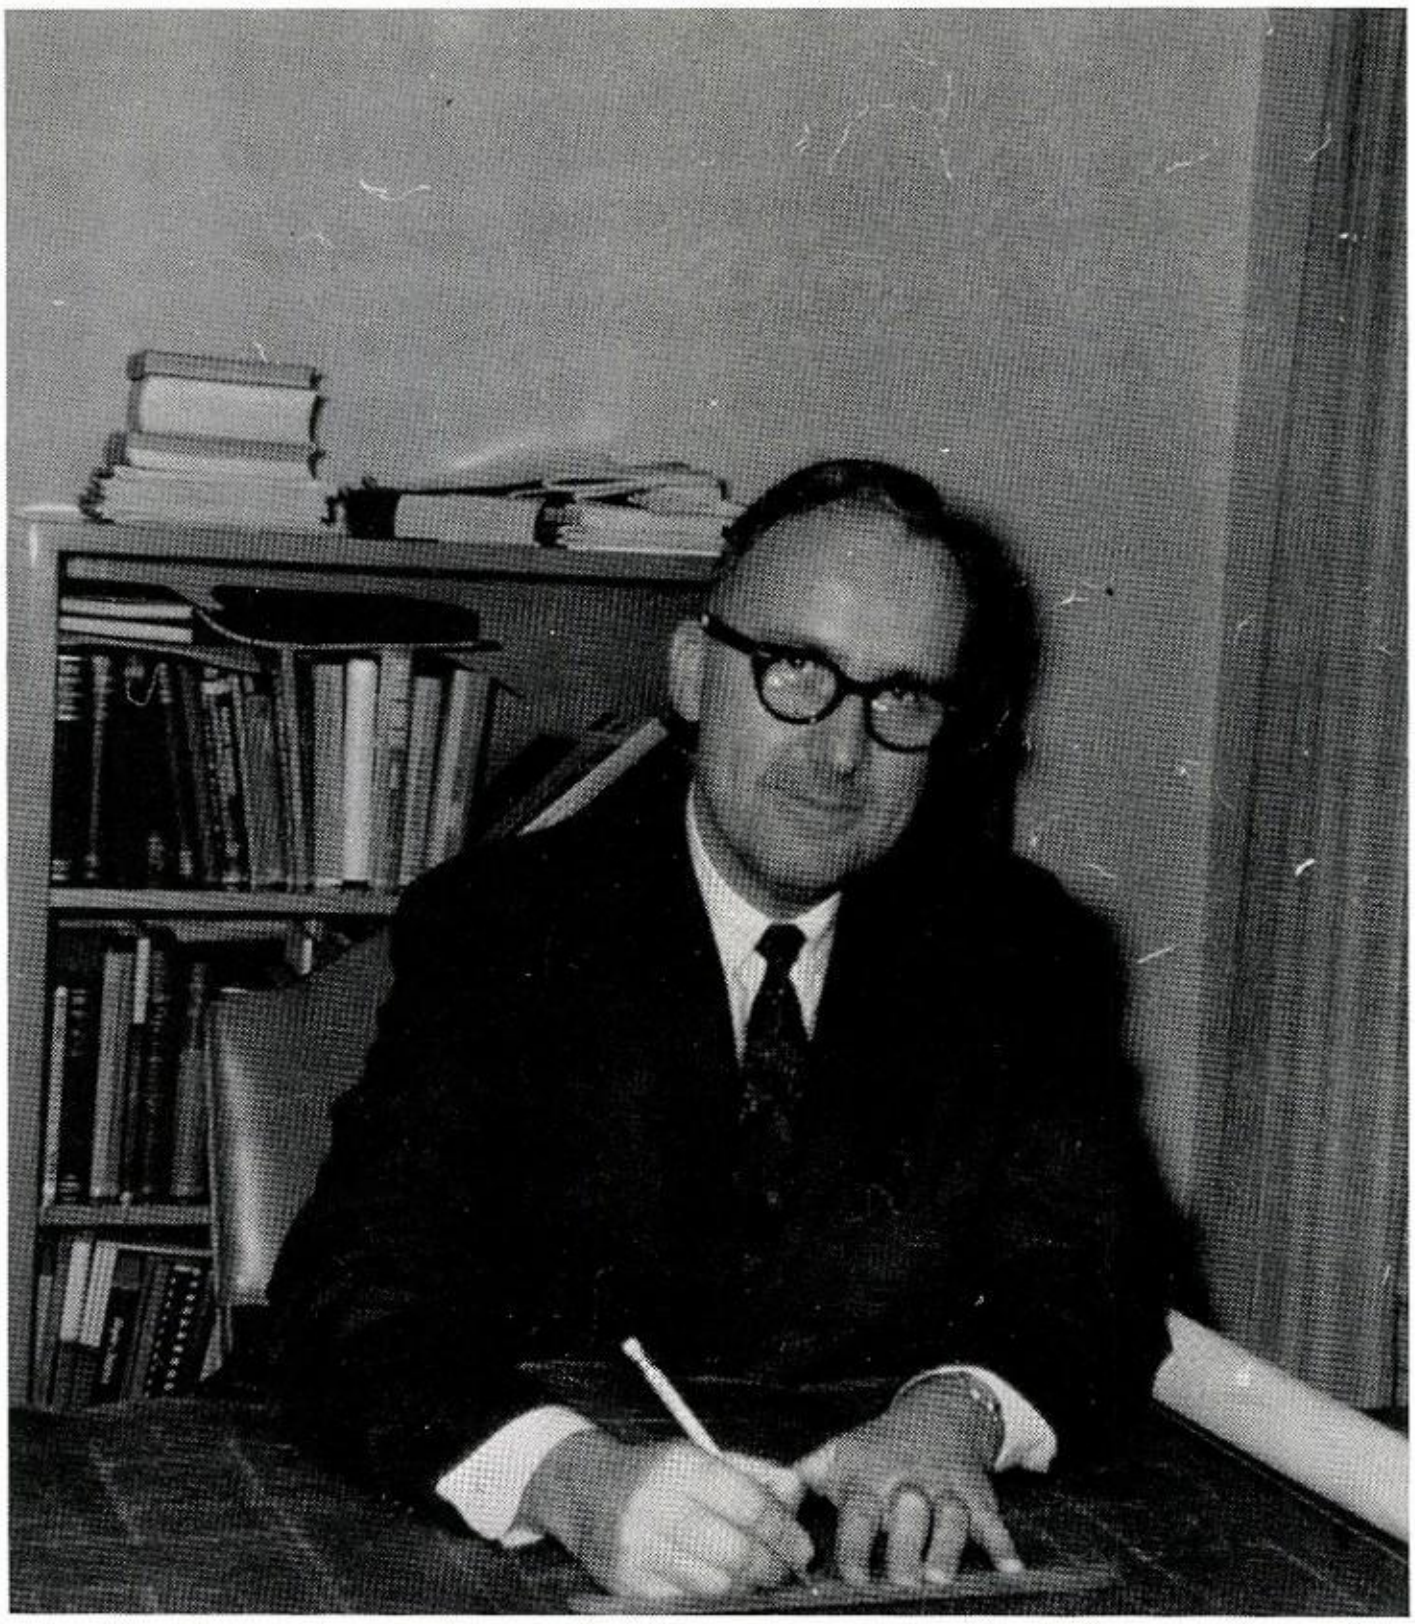
Even here merit has its own rewards, there are tears for human affairs, and human sufferings touch the heart.

She still lives and always will live in our minds.



DR. HAZEL COLE HUTSON

Dr. Hutson came to Winchester in 1953 to teach English. She became the headmistress of the upper school in 1959. Under her guidance an honor system has been successfully established, and honor reading and the study of the Bible have been added to the curriculum of the seniors. Dr. Hutson received her A.B. from Colby College, and her M.A. and Ph.D. from Yale University.



DR. EARL M. McWILLIAMS

Dr. McWilliams, formerly the director of curriculum for the West Jefferson Public Schools, came to Winchester in 1961 as president of the school. He received his A.B., M.A. and Ed.D. from the University of Pittsburgh. He also studied at Harvard University. Dr. McWilliams has compiled an impressive record. At the University of Pittsburgh he won a Buhl Foundation Scholarship and in 1953-1954 he received a Ford Foundation grant with which he studied the gifted chiid in American schools. He is co-author of a book entitled Challenging Gifted Children.

The Winchester-Thurston literary magazine, The Plaid, is published annually and sold to the entire student body. The articles are contributed by the whole school, and those which are to be included in The Plaid are chosen by the staff. The staff is composed of one representative from every class in the Upper School who is chosen by the faculty on the basis of her ability in English and an editor elected by the Junior Class.

Dear Peggy,
Don't look for me here - I just didn't make it. That would fear a too rad'ed member. Your class is a terrific one — I'm glad I won't meet you yet. I'll really miss you and your class. You will have a terrific year. Looking forward to it.
Love,
Anne
We really will miss our boys next year!

A committee of five girls drafted and submitted for approval a written constitution for the Student Council of the Winchester-Thurston School this year. This was the first formal statement of the aims, powers, and functions of the council.

HONOR READING COURSE

This year a new course has been added to the Senior curriculum. The Honor reading class is made up of girls selected on the basis of their achievement in Junior English. During a two-week period the girls read books by authors such as Melville, Fielding, Santayana, and Dante. Under the guidance of Mrs. Hutson, Mrs. Beebe, and Mrs. Widgery, they are led to a greater understanding of the author and the age in which he wrote.

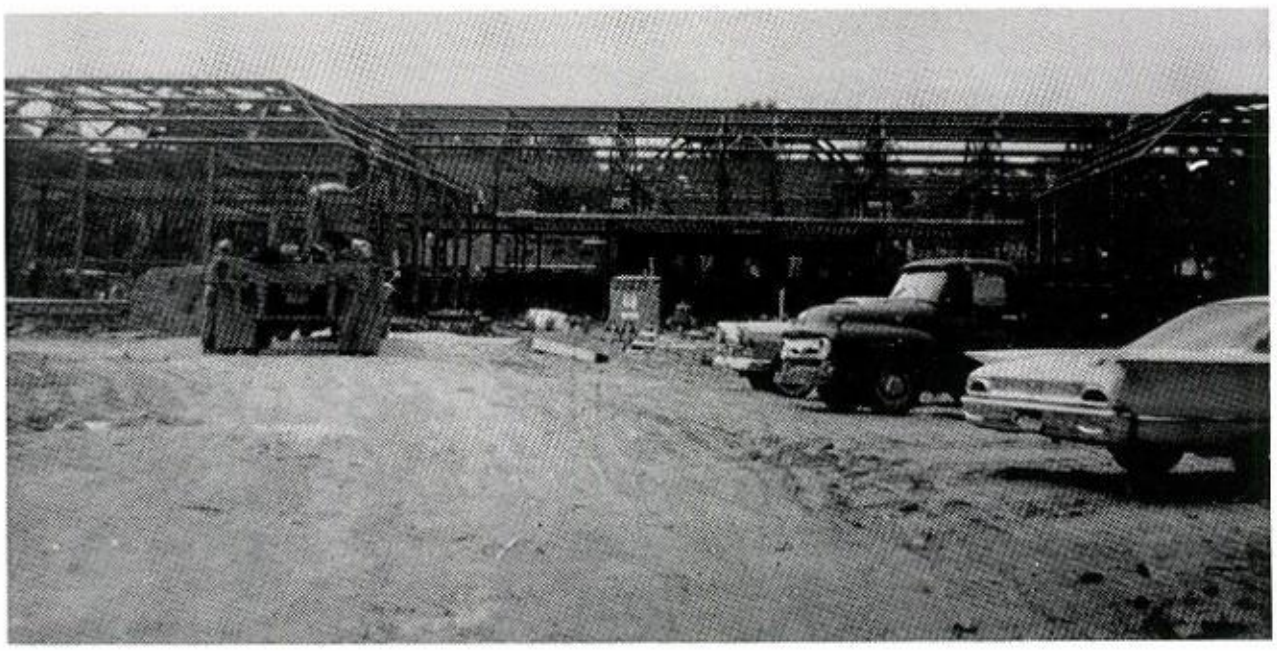
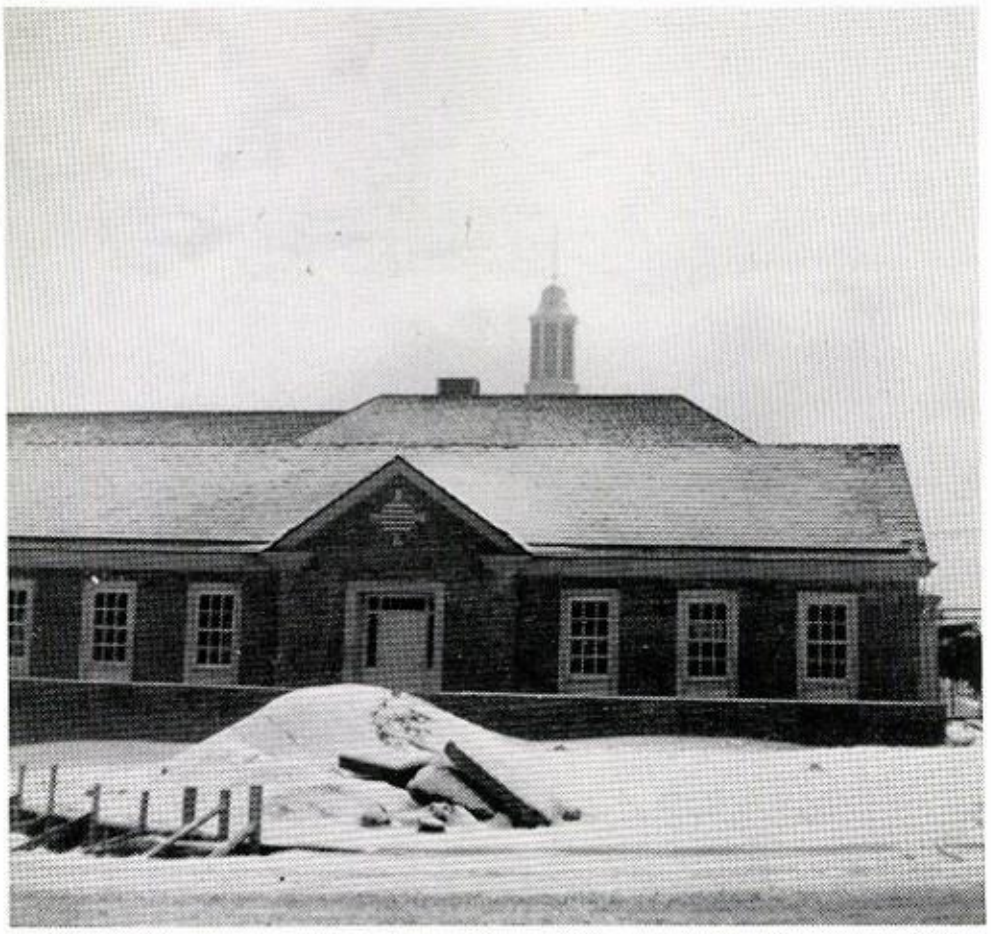
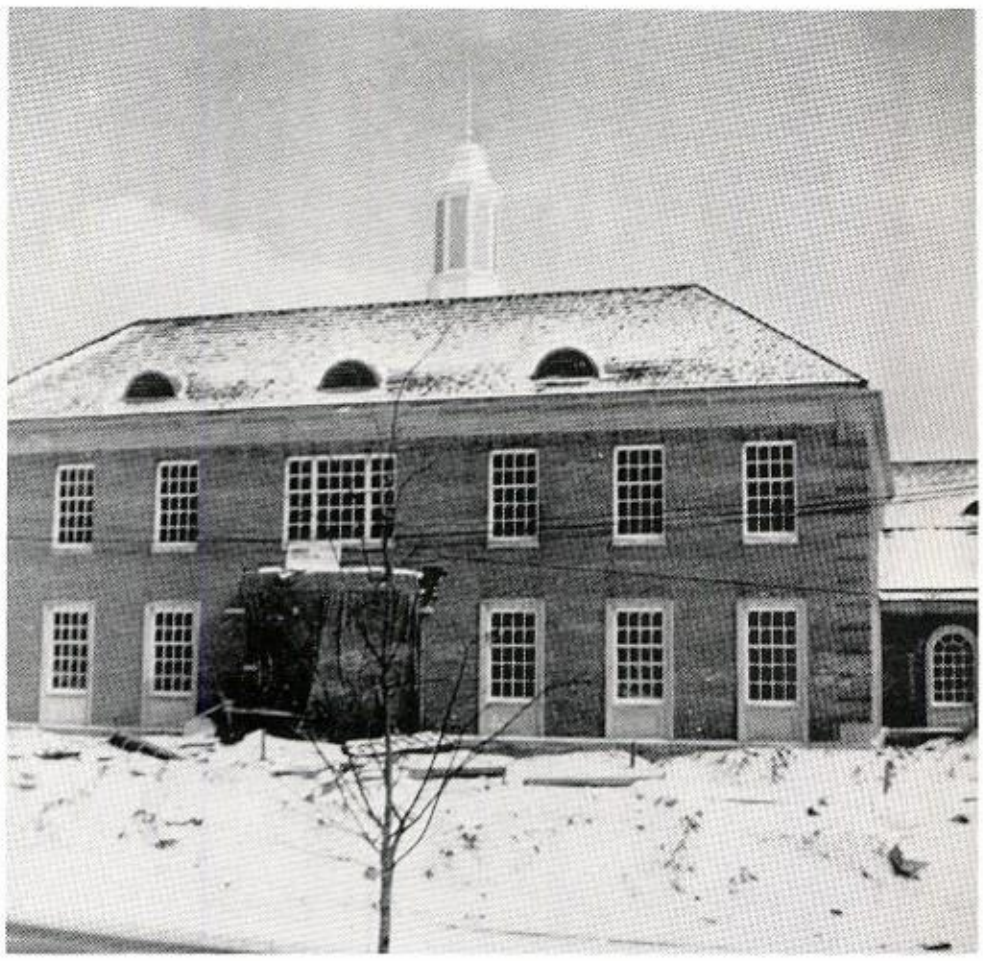
NEW SCHOOL







LOOKING BACK

For the last twelve years, we seniors have been working toward a common goal—graduation day. So eagerly did we look forward to commencement that we never once realized all that we must leave behind. Now that we have achieved our goal, the things we remember and the things we anticipate cause us to face this day with mixed emotions. Although the future has many surprises for us, it can never dull our memories of raucous class meetings, of the senior briarpatch, or of the apricots on the lunchroom wall. The time has come for us to don our white gowns and ceremoniously say farewell to Winchester-Thurston. This is especially difficult because there is to be a change in address; we know we can never return. However, the school will always exist in our hearts. Its traditions and ideals form the core from which our thirty-three different pathways radiate.

This Certificate is worth $300

This is your guarantee in print that all Vern Staley prices on '63 Dodges start at $300 below the factory suggested retail price. You are guaranteed a savings of $300 or more on any '63 Dodge you pick. Vern Staley makes this unique offer because of his policy of volume sales. Because he sells more cars, he can take a much smaller margin of profit on every car—and you get the saving. This is Vern's secret to success, and the policy that has made him one of the Tri-State's largest dealers. Stop in at Vern Staley's and see the proof of this remarkable $300 savings offer. There's a complete line of all '63 Dodges at Vern's. Check all of them. Check all the prices. You'll see why more and more Pittsburghers are taking advantage of the Vern Staley price—the lowest price anywhere.

Before you buy any car, think of the $300 or more you'll save at
